Repurposing, Reigniting, and Resuscitating Miami Beach Retail to Help Us Get Our Groove Back

How do we get from "Going Out Of Business" to "Grand Opening"?

Join us for a roundtable discussion about how to revive flagging blocks, inspire and welcome new entrepreneurs, support legacy businesses, and create creative spaces.

Discussion topics will include:

- Lean Urbanism principles and how they have worked well elsewhere; things we could do right now right here w/out infrastructure costs or new development
- Out of the box economic development concepts to support legacy business, revive flagging blocks, inspire and welcome new entrepreneurs
- The importance of curation and the role of placemaking/character of the neighborhood
- Streamlining the BTR process from concept to opening day

Come share your experience, your ideas, and your questions!
