WE NEVER ENDORSE CANDIDATES FOR ELECTED OFFICE

AND WE HAVEN'T STARTED NOW!

On Friday 8/26/22, voters across the city received a campaign mailer from a PAC calling itself "Miami Beach Residents United." Although it may just be a coincidence, that name could easily be misinterpreted to suggest that Miami Beach United is supporting the PAC and its candidate, and that is not the case.

We have never, and are not now, endorsing or supporting any candidate in any city election. We advocate on policy issues on behalf of residents' rights year-round, and nothing more.

What we will be doing as we do every election cycle, is hosting a candidate forum shortly after the qualifying period closes, in early September. We encourage voters to tune in to get informed about each candidate's position on residents' rights and quality of life issues (details to follow).

In the meanwhile, you can click here to see the most up-to-date information on who is running for the commission seat unexpectedly vacated by the late Mark Samuelian (there are currently 5 candidates), and what PACs are supporting what issues and/or candidates for the November election. This information is updated regularly so you can refer back to this link throughout the election season.
